MAY ENLIST MEN ONLY FOR SERVICE ON MEXICAN LINE

Governor McDonald May Issue Proclamation Declaring He Will Discharge Recruits Upon Return.

Gov. W. C. McDonald, who was here last night on the way from Santa Fe to his ranch near Carrizozo, gave Maj. B. Ruppe, of the recruiting service, authority to take up with Adj. Gen. Harry T. Herring and Col. E. C. Abbott, commanding the First New Mexico Infantry, a plan by which the major expects to recruit the First Infantry up to the strength required by the United States government.

The plan advocated by Major Ruppe is that Governor McDonald proclaim that he will grant an honorable discharge to every one who merits it by good conduct, at the expiration of service for the United States government. This means that young men who enlist now for duty on the border will be discharged from the national guard at the time when Uncle Samuel does not need them to guard the international border and that they will not have to complete the term of enlistment required by the national guard if the necessity of a border patrol passes before the term of their enlistment.

This plan, it is believed, would overcome organized labor's objection to enlistment in the national guard. Under this plan militiamen who enlist for border service, could not be called upon for anything but service on the border. They would be discharged when the regiment—if New Mexico has one—returns from the front. Under this plan they could not be called upon to act in any conflict between capital and labor.

Major Ruppe last night received two checks, one for $55 and the other for $120. The bigger check came from Holm G. Bursum, of Socorro. This is to be divided into ten equal parts, each organization of the New Mexico national guard to receive $10 for its company fund. The check for $55 is to be divided between the two Albuquerque companies, Company G receiving $27.50 and Company L a like amount. The latter check was given by Mrs. Louis Hfeld, Mr. and Mrs. Max Nordhaus, Byron H. Ives, Senator Isaac Barth, George S. Klock, Neil E. Field, C. O. Cushman, First National bank, J. B. Herndon, Col. D. K. B. Sellers, O. A. Matson, Dr. C. H. Conners, Dr. W. M. Farr and the Red Cross chapter.

CUSHMAN FINDS REASON FOR INCREASING TRADE OF WASHBURN STORE

Merchandise seems to be moving faster than ever before at this season at the prosperous clothing store, the E. L. Washburn company's, said C. O. Cushman yesterday.

Mr. Cushman has been looking for the reason for this. He decided that there are two. One of the principal reasons for the store's increasing trade, Mr. Cushman believes, is the courteous treatment that employees of E. L. Washburn company uniformly show customers and also the excellent line of dependable merchandise that is displayed at the store at all times.
